ASSURANCE STATEMENTS

- Professionally acceptable standards governing the care, treatment, and use of animals, including appropriate use of anesthetic, analgesic, and tranquilizing drugs, prior to, during, and following actual research, teaching, testing, surgery, or experimentation were followed by this research facility.
- Each principal investigator has considered alternatives to painful procedures.
- This facility is adhering to the standards and regulations under the Act, and it has required that exceptions to the standards and regulations be specified and explained by the principal investigator and approved by the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC). A summary of all the exceptions is attached to this annual report. In addition to identifying the IACUC-approved exceptions, this summary includes a brief explanation of the exceptions, as well as the species and number of animals affected.
- The attending veterinarian for this research facility has appropriate authority to ensure the provision of adequate veterinary care and to oversee the adequacy of other aspects of animal care and use.

APHIS Form 7023 Column E Explanation

This form is intended as an aid to completing the APHIS Form 7023 Column E explanation. It is not an official form and its use is voluntary. Names, addresses, protocols, veterinary care programs, and the like, are not required as part of an explanation. A Column E explanation must be written so as to be understood by lay persons as well as scientists.

1. Registration Number: 57-R-0116

2/3. Species (common name) & Number of animals used in this study:

Cats (9)

4. Explain the procedure producing pain and/or distress.

Cats were used in studies for development of a preventative vaccine for a disease endemic in the United States. The development studies of this test article require challenge of cats with this virulent agent in order to evaluate the test article efficacy and potency. Nine (9) cats exhibited neurological symptoms but died prior to euthanasia.

5. Provide scientific justification why pain and/or distress could not be relieved. State methods or means used to determine that pain and/or distress relief would interfere with test results. (For Federally mandated testing, see Item 6 below)

Due to the zoonotic nature of this disease, supportive care, anesthetics, analgesics, and tranquilizing drugs are not appropriate treatment for this agent and would interfere with the evaluation of this test article.

6. What, if any, federal regulations require this procedure? Cite the agency, the code of Federal Regulations (CFR) title number and the specific section number (e.g., APHIS, 9 CFR 113.102):

Agency: This testing is required by the USDA for licensing CFR:

APHIS Form 7023 Column E Explanation

This form is intended as an aid to completing the APHIS Form 7023 Column E explanation. It is not an official form and its use is voluntary. Names, addresses, protocols, veterinary care programs, and the like, are not required as part of an explanation. A Column E explanation must be written so as to be understood by lay persons as well as scientists.

1. Registration Number: 57-R-0116

2/3. Species (common name) & Number of animals used in this study:

Hamsters (1572)

4. Explain the procedure producing pain and/or distress.

This testing requires challenging hamsters with the virulent agent in order to evaluate test article efficacy and potency. One thousand five hundred seventy-two (1572) hamsters experienced weight loss, debilitation and death.

5. Provide scientific justification why pain and/or distress could not be relieved. State methods or means used to determine that pain and/or distress relief would interfere with test results. (For Federally mandated testing, see Item 6 below)

Supportive care, anesthetics, analgesics and tranquilizing drugs are not appropriate treatment for this agent and would interfere with the evaluation of the test article.

6. What, if any, federal regulations require this procedure? Cite the agency, the code of Federal Regulations (CFR) title number and the specific section number (e.g., APHIS, 9 CFR 113.102):
